

Common House Elliott

In the monumental building of the previous Postkantoor (post office) of Middelburg, there is the answer to years of students' prayers: the Common House Elliott. Elliott is the home to students and the home to the complete UCR community.

Elliott consists of a café/ restaurant, study room, classrooms, meeting rooms, and a downstairs party bar. On Mondays through Thursdays during the semester, Elliott is open to cater to the needs of members of the university from 8:30 until 00:00, on Fridays Elliott is open from 8:30 to 21:00, opening times in the weekends are from 10:00 until 19:00 on Saturdays, and from 10:00 to 21:00 on Sundays. As part of its goal to provide for the students, Elliott exists to facilitate you. This entails that not only any student can book and reserve space within Elliott for their academic needs, but events such as parties, society events or conferences have the opportunity to be held within the building.

The Common House is a place that serves as social hub, a center for all students to come together and truly develop themselves in a social and academic setting – be this through working on group assignments, participating in for instance debates, theatre plays, conferences or art groups or just through sharing a meal or a drink. Elliott wants to stimulate students further to share their thoughts, their experiences and their opinions, to encourage banter, disputation and simple relaxation with friends – those intangible, non-graded aspects of an education that can make the years spent at a university truly exceptional.

Above all, the Common House is a joint communal project that completely relies on students to, among others, man the bars, pour drinks and subsequently drink them, decorate the building, and give feedback to the board. The Common House Elliott Board assures that this is handled in the most effective way and has the ultimate responsibility to make all of this happen.
